Oliver Goldsmith opened a law office on September 3 of the current year. During the first month of operations, the business completed the following transactions:

Sep	3	Goldsmith transferred $ 20,000 cash from his personal bank account to a business account entitled Oliver Goldsmith Attorney.
	4	Purchased supplies $ 200, and furniture, $ 1800, on account.
	6	Performed legal services for a client and received cash $ 1000
	7	Paid $ 15000 cash to acquire land for a future office site.
	10	Defended a client in court, billed the client, and received her promise to pay the $ 900 within one week.
	14	Paid for the furniture purchased September 4 on account.
	15	Paid secretary salary, $ 600
	16	Paid telephone bill, $ 120
	17	Received partial payment from client on account, $ 700
	20	Prepared legal documents for a client on account, $ 800
	24	Paid the water & electricity bills, $ 110
	28	Received $ 1500 cash for helping a client sell real estate.
	30	Paid secretary salary $ 600.
	30	Paid rent expense $ 500.
	30	Withdraw $ 2000 for personal use.

Required: 1. Journalize the transactions. Explanations are not needed. 3

2. Post the entries to T accounts with posting reference. 4

3. Prepare a trial balance using current date. 3